

Achieve career success in Canada

Windmill Microlending offers low-interest loans to help skilled immigrants and refugees pay for the costs of accreditation, training and professional development.

We provide a fixed interest rate of 6.7%

We offer loans up to $15,000 to help you pay for:

- Education and training programs of two years or less
- Fees for licensing and qualifying exams
- Living expenses during your period of study
- Professional development courses
- Relocation costs for employment
- Travel expenses to take courses or exams
- Books, supplies and course materials
- Professional association fees

To be eligible for a Windmill loan, you must:

- ▶ Be internationally trained or have a minimum of one year of post-secondary work experience before coming to Canada.
- ▶ You must also be living in Canada as a Permanent Resident, Provincial Nominee, Canadian Citizen, Protected Person or Convention Refugee.

For more information contact:

inquiry@teamwindmill.org

Windmill is a national registered charity.